The Old Leather Man Dan W. DeLuca, 2013-09-01 In 1883 wearing a sixty pound suit sewn from leather boot tops a wanderer known only as the Leather Man began to walk a 365 mile loop between the Connecticut and Hudson Rivers that he would complete every 34 days for almost six years His circuit took him through at least 41 towns in southwestern Connecticut and southeastern New York sleeping in caves accepting food from townspeople and speaking only in grunts and gestures along the way What remains of the mysterious Leather Man today are the news clippings and photographs taken by the first hand witnesses of this captivating individual The Old Leather Man gathers the best of the early newspaper accounts of the Leather Man and includes maps of his route historic photographs of his shelters the houses he was known to stop at along his way and of the Leather Man himself This history tracks the footsteps of the Leather Man and unravels the myths surrounding the man who made Connecticut s caves his home Ebook Edition Note Six of the 111 illustrations have been redacted

The New Nature of Maps J. B. Harley, 2002-10-03 In these essays the author draws on ideas in art history literature philosophy and the study of visual culture to subvert the traditional positivist model of cartography and replace it with one grounded in an iconological and semiotic theory of the nature of maps

A Research Guide to Cartographic Resources Eva H. Dodsworth, 2018-09-22 The interdisciplinary uses of traditional cartographic resources and modern GIS tools allow for the analysis and discovery of information across a wide spectrum of fields A Research Guide to Cartographic Resources navigates the numerous American and Canadian cartographic resources available in print and online offering researchers academics and students with information on how to locate and access the large variety of resources new and old Dozens of different cartographic materials are highlighted and summarized along with lists of map libraries and geospatial centers and related professional associations A Research Guide to Cartographic Resources consists of 18 chapters two appendices and a detailed index that includes place names and libraries structured in a manner consistent with most reference guides including cartographic categories such as atlases dictionaries gazetteers handbooks maps plans GIS data and other related material Almost all of the resources listed in this guide are categorized by geography down to the county level making efficient work of the type of material required to meet the information needs of those interested in researching place specific cartographic related resources Additionally this guide will help those interested in not only developing a comprehensive collection in these subject areas but get an understanding of what materials are being collected and housed in specific map libraries geospatial centers and their related websites Of particular value are the sections that offer directories of cartographic and GIS libraries as well as comprehensive lists of geospatial datasets down to the county level This volume combines the traditional and historical collections of cartography with the modern applications of GIS based maps and geospatial datasets Red Book, 1905 Route Map Section National Survey Company, 1937 Lost Roses Martha Hall Kelly, 2019-04-09 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The million copy bestseller Lilac Girls introduced the real life heroine Caroline Ferriday Now Lost Roses set a generation earlier and also inspired by true events features Caroline s mother Eliza and follows three equally indomitable women from St Petersburg to Paris under the shadow of World War I Not only a brilliant historical tale but a love song to all the ways our friendships carry us through the worst of times Lisa Wingate 1 New York Times bestselling author of Before We Were Yours It is 1914 and the world has been on the brink of war so often many New Yorkers treat the subject with only passing interest Eliza Ferriday is thrilled to be traveling to St Petersburg with Sofya Streshnayva a cousin of the Romanovs The two met years ago one summer in Paris and became close confidantes Now Eliza embarks on the trip of a lifetime home with Sofya to see the splendors of Russia the church with the interior covered in jeweled mosaics the Rembrandts at the tsar s Winter Palace the famous ballet But when Austria declares war on Serbia and Russia s imperial dynasty begins to fall Eliza escapes back to America while Sofya and her family flee to their country estate In need of domestic help they hire the local fortune teller s daughter Varinka unknowingly bringing intense danger into their household On the other side of the Atlantic Eliza is doing her part to help the White Russian families find safety as they escape the revolution But when Sofya s letters suddenly stop coming she fears the worst for her best friend From the turbulent streets of St Petersburg and aristocratic countryside estates to the avenues of Paris where a society of fallen Russian migr s live to the mansions of Long Island the lives of Eliza Sofya and Varinka will intersect in profound ways In her newest powerful tale told through female driven perspectives Martha Hall Kelly celebrates the unbreakable bonds of women s friendship especially during the darkest days of history Maps and Atlases Library of Congress.
